Few sensations compare to the intensity of walking past a honeysuckle plant in full bloom. The scent intoxicates, prompting us to stop and take a deep breath. Leaving us both a little lighter and maybe even a little calmer. That tiny moment of serenity is the inspiration behind our Honeysuckle plan. There's certainly no shortage of sweetness in this home design as you are greeted with a vast entry foyer picture-perfect for kindhearted greetings or showing off your prized floral arrangement expertise. And as you walk through the plan, you begin to appreciate a purposeful arrangement of space. Bedrooms that flex for guests or hobbies, a pocket office for work or just a moment of solitude to take a few deep breaths. A choreographed moment of Serenity. Joyfully Built. Meaningfully Different.
