It's time to get excited about Tupelo Junction, a vibrant new community in Mebane, NC — "The Biggest Little Town on Earth." Whether you love the simplicity of one-story ranch living or prefer two floors of comfort and style, this is a rare opportunity to purchase the meticulously-built home of your dreams in a community everyone desires. You'll enjoy direct, convenient walking access to Lake Michael Park, its 60-acre lake, and miles of hiking trails. Plus, more than half of our community is being preserved as a natural area overflowing with local trees, plants and flowers—creating the perfect balance of indoor and outdoor living.

Embrace the sweet life at Tupelo Junction. Joyfully Built. Meaningfully Different.

All square footage is approximate. Renderings are artist's conceptions and may vary slightly from the actual home. Homes may be built in reverse of plans shown, depending on site conditions. Minor architectural changes may be made occasionally at the option of the builder. Please contact your Sales Consultant for details.
