NAME THAT SONG — "I drink Brass Monkey and I rock well; I got a castle in Brooklyn, that's where I dwell". We'll tell you - the Beastie Boys. They were revolutionary and we want this home to feel as fresh as the music you love. With a completely open kitchen, family and dining space, there's plenty of room to party - or just chill with your people. Just travel upstairs to find private bedrooms, a primary suite with a killer bath, and a loft for all the extra activities in your life.
