Wait, who won?! Looks like we need a Tiebreaker! If you can't decide which home in this collection is your favorite, then this is the plan for you. It's the best parts of the Rock, Paper, Scissors, and Shoot all in one and then some. Open floor plan and oversized kitchen island on the first floor with ample space for entertaining friends and family. Our largest and only plan in this collection with standard rear outdoor living space. Upstairs find The Suite, two additional bedrooms, laundry, extra storage and a large open loft. Did we mention the TWO walk-in closets in the Suite?
